Briefly summarize your previous university teaching and/or TAing experience.

Name of a faculty member in your department who supports your participation in the Future Faculty Program

Faculty support member's UGA email address

Teaching Award(s) Received and Year Received (e.g. OTA, 2016)

What courses will you teach next year?

Please list course name, your role in the course (e.g., instructor of record, discussion leader, laboratory assistant, grader), and the approximate number of students in the class.

In what kind of institution would you like to be a faculty member? (e.g., research-intensive [e.g., UGA] , comprehensive university [e.g., Georgia Southern University], liberal arts college [e.g., Agnes Scott College], community college [e.g., Athens Technical College]). Is there one institution that represents the type of institution in which you would like to work? If so, provide the name of that institution.

What aspects of your teaching are you particularly interested in developing?

What types of training or support for TAs or LAs are currently available to you in your department? (e.g., GRSC 7770 courses, dedicated faculty or staff advisors, graduate-student-run programs)

What do you see as the major instructional development needs of TAs or LAs in your department?

What kind of teaching support services do you think you could implement in your department as a Future Faculty Program TA next year?

Participation in program retreats and meetings are critical for success in the program. Along with scheduled events. Future Faculty Fellows will be encouraged to attend professional development workshops and seminars and participate in peer-mentorship opportunities.

Are you:

AVAILABLE for FFP ORIENTATION (August 3, 4, 7, 2017) and TA ORIENTATION (August 8, 2017); able to COMMIT to Bi-monthly MEETINGS on Mondays 2:00-4:00 (August 21, 2017 - March 26th, 2018); AVAILABLE for the SPRING TEACHING SYMPOSIUM (TBA~February, 2018) and AVAILABLE for 1-day RETREAT on Friday, October 27, 2017 (Fall Break) and WEEKEND RETREAT on April 14-16, 2018.

Block 2

Please upload a one-page letter outlining why you believe you are a dedicated, passionate, and innovative teacher. Please include references to professional development opportunities you have participated in (e.g., CTL workshops and symposium), innovations you have introduced in your classroom, whether as a TA, LA, guest lecture, or instructor of record (e.g., innovative teaching strategies, assignments you developed, new or redeveloped course material), and generally how you have gone above and beyond to support undergraduate learning (e.g., how you have supported your students learning in the classroom).

Please upload a letter of recommendation from a faculty member at UGA familiar with your teaching. The faculty member may send you a pdf that you upload. The letter may come from the graduate coordinator of your department, a co-instructor, a teaching mentor, the instructor of record for your TAship, or some other faculty member who can speak to your teaching interests, innovations, and dedication.

If they would prefer to send the letter directly to the CTL, please have them email Dr. Zoe Morris at zoe.morris@uga.edu. Please do not leave this section blank but instead upload a document that indicates the letter has been sent separately, including your name and the name of the faculty member.

Interview

NEXT STEP: The Interview.

Top candidates for the FFFP program will be invited to participate in a brief, 10-minute interview as the last step in our process. These interviews will take place during the following time blocks and may be done in small groups (3 to 4 students):

- Tuesday, April 11, from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m.
- Thursday, April 13, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m.
- Friday, April 14, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m.

You are encouraged to block off these times on your calendar. Top candidates can expect an invitation to an interview during the week of Monday, April 10th.
